STIGMATA HARD TECHNO / SCHRANZ

ABOUT THE DJ

André Walter has been producing electronic music since the early 1980s, first as Holocube and Aquaform on Harthouse and Eye Q. From 1999 to 2004 he co-produced the Stigmata series with Chris Liebing — work credited with helping invent and shape the Schranz sound, and awarded Best Producer at the German Dance Award 2001.

He runs his own imprint Wicca for solo work, and returned to the Stigmata alias in 2018 with the album “Paraspectral”. Today he plays club nights and festival stages under the Stigmata name, and is open for international DJ bookings.

SOUND

Techno with hard Schranz elements: tough, driving grooves, dark, edged funk and melodic undertones — built for peak-time club and festival floors.
